Forbes Names United Concordia Dental to List of Top 100 Employers in Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Pa. (Sept. 3, 2020) – Forbes has named United Concordia Dental, a national dental solutions partner headquartered in Harrisburg, to its list of top 100 employers in Pennsylvania. The company ranks 15th among some of the largest businesses in the state.

“Building a culture of recognition, inclusion and family has been a priority for us for many years,” said Tim Constantine, president and CEO of United Concordia Dental. “That’s why we’re honored to be named to the Forbes list. This news is a testament to the commitment and dedication of our employees who help us make our company an employer they are willing to recommend.”

Forbes worked with Statista, a company that offers market research for 170 industries and more than 150 countries, to develop the rankings. An anonymous survey of 80,000 Americans working for businesses with at least 500 employees was conducted over an eight-month period (October 2019-May 2020).

“Succeeding in a highly competitive, complex and rapidly changing industry requires the engagement of empowered employees” said Constantine. “Our employees place our customers at the center of everything we do and truly exemplify our core behaviors.”
